Thank you for creating a book that I really enjoyed and will share with others. Michael you have done a really outstanding job in self-reflection at a very high level. The picture on the cover speaks for itself, what you wrote inside answered what I always wanted to know. What would that person's life been like if they had just gotten over that tough spot?

You were brave enough to face your fears, share them with us and so much more. Well done from start to finish.

Sharing is so healthy, and you have done a lot of that. Thank you, Michael
